

REP. GILLET IS ELECTED SPEAKER

Sumkins Is Chosen President
Pro Tem of Senate—Republicans Organize Both Houses of the 66th Congress

S. O. P. RETURNS TO POWER

Appropriation Bills Which Failed in the Fullbluster Last March Will Be Rushed Immediately in House—Flood of Measures Started

Washington, May 19.—The sixty-sixth, "reconstruction" Congress, called to extraordinary session by President Wilson from Paris, convened at noon today to republican majorities in Senate and House organized both bodies.

Representative Gillett of Massachusetts was elected speaker of the House over representative Champ Clark of Missouri, democratic candidate and former speaker, by a vote of 227 to 172.

Senator Cummins of Iowa, the republican candidate, was chosen president pro tempore of the Senate over Senator Pittman of Nevada, democrat, 47 to 42. Several democrats were absent, but all republicans were in their seats, two with-aiding votes.

The republicans of both bodies also elected states of other officers and thus, for the first time, since 1911, returned to control of the American national legislature.

Routine affairs of organization completed the opening day's proceedings, both bodies adjourning until noon tomorrow, when President Wilson's cable message will be read separately in the Senate and House by clerks. The Senate today concluded its session in 50 minutes and the House in two hours and 15 minutes.

Although keenly realized by all members, there was no outward evidence in the initial proceedings of the enormous amount of work ahead. The peace treaty with Germany, including the League of Nations covenant, the Austrian treaty, and the proposed convention for protection of France are not expected before next month. All hold promise of dramatic debate.

Appropriation bills which failed in the Fullbluster last March will be rushed immediately in the House. Chairman Good of the House appropriations committee tonight called a meeting for to-morrow to begin work on the general deficiency measure.

Legislation dealing with railroads, telegraphs and telephones, woman suffrage, prohibition, repeal of the luxury taxes and other pressing subjects are promised in the van of important reconstruction questions.

This legislation is expected by leaders to hold Congress in session almost continuously until the presidential conventions of 1920.

Investigations planned by the republicans of numerous administration acts also are expected to begin in the near future. Reconstruction is expected by leaders to hold Congress in session almost continuously until the presidential conventions of 1920.

The flood of bills which is expected to make the new Congress momentous began in the House today and the Senate's initial measures will be presented to-morrow. House resolution No. 1 was the woman suffrage amendment, introduced by former Republican leader Mann of Illinois.

Despite the formality of to-day's proceedings and the absence of the President—the first time Congress has opened with a President on foreign soil—overflow toward in both Senate and House galleries stressed the birth of the new Congress. Many cabinet officers and other high officials were spectators in the House, here cheering and speech-making lent formal tone of popular interest.

When House members were sworn in, representative Berger of Wisconsin, the lone socialist member, who was indicted of violating the espionage law as prevented from taking the oath, upon objection of Representative Dalling of Massachusetts, chairman of the elections committee. He was ordered by Speaker Gillett to stand aside and was not allowed to address the House, which adopted unanimously a resolution authorizing a committee to investigate his right to membership.

No objection was raised from the Senate prior to the seating of Senator Truman of Missouri, republican, and Senator Henry Ford, democrat. Formal notice of renewal of the Ford contest, with a request for a committee investigation, as filed.

In addition to electing officers, the Senate adopted a number of resolutions of censure with a departure in the matter of the President, because of his presence in Paris of the convening. The Senate committee of notification, Republican Leader Lodge and Democratic leader Martin, met late today with the House committee, Republican Leader Gillett, Representative Mann and former Speaker Clark, and decided upon different courses. The Senate leaders sent a cable merely advising the President of the Senate's formal action today, while the House committee sent a letter of notification to the White House.

Major committees of the House were organized to-day, but Senate committee arrangements went over. Senator Lodge pointed the republican conference committee on committees to make assignments, selecting two leaders of the progressive group, Senators Borah, Johnson of California and Borah of Idaho, to be the republican members of the committee. Mr. Lodge said they did not wish to serve, but will be urged to accept. The committee will begin work to-morrow.

FIFTY YEARS WED
Mr. and Mrs. George S. Russell Celebrate Anniversary Quietly

Middlebury, May 20.—Mr. and Mrs. George S. Russell celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage at their home on Monday afternoon and evening, there being only a few of the relatives and friends in attendance, owing to Mrs. Russell not being in very good health. They were married 50 years ago, or May 18, 1869, in Montpelier, by the Rev. Elson Parker, pastor of the Methodist church of that town. Mr. Russell is the son of the late Harry and Sarah Russell, Shelburne, in which town he was born, and Mrs. Russell was the daughter of the late Harry W. and Eliza B. Carr, of Montpelier, in which town she was born. Mr. and Mrs. Russell spent the winter part of their life in New Haven, where he was one of Addison county's most prominent farmers. He gave up several years ago and has since resided in this village, where he has carried on successful business in agricultural implements. Mr. and Mrs. Russell are the parents of one son, Leroy C. Russell, a prominent lawyer of this village. A grandson, George Russell, is a student in the Annapolis naval academy. They received a number of presents and many letters of congratulations from their many friends.

NC-4 SAFE AT HORTA; NC-3 AND CREW LOST; NC-1 CREW RESCUED

Apprehension Over Safety of Commander Towers and His Men of the NC-3 Now Missing Over 40 Hours, Displaces Confidence That All the Trans-Atlantic Fliers Will Be Found—Two Battleships and Score of Destroyers Are Now Scouring the Sea Over Wide Area—NC-1 Found in Badly Battered Condition.

Washington, May 19.—Apprehension as to the safety of Commander John H. Towers and his crew of four men, who in the seaplane NC-3 have been lost at sea for more than 40 hours, had begun tonight to displace the feeling of confidence among naval officials that the trans-Atlantic fliers soon would be found by searching vessels.

No word had been received from the NC-3 since 5:15 o'clock yesterday morning when Commander Towers reported that his plane, the flagship of the squadron, was off her course some 300 miles from the island of Fayal, Azores. Despatches from Rear Admiral Jackson, aboard the U. S. S. Melville, at Ponta Delgada, Azores, to-night said a gale was sweeping the sea over the northwest of the Azores and that high waves were running.

With the NC-4 at Horta, after its 15-hour flight from Newfoundland, now groomed and ready for the next leg of the trans-Atlantic flight, and the crew of the NC-1 safely aboard the cruiser Columbia at Horta, the navy with its vast force of vessels concentrated to aid in the trans-Atlantic attempt was bending all of its energies to the finding of the lost fliers.

The battleships, the Florida and Texas, and nearly a score of destroyers were scouring the sea over a wide area all day today and to-night. The fog, which it is supposed forced the NC-1 to the open sea when within a few short miles of Corvo headland, the objective point of the aerial voyage, was being dissipated by strong westerly winds this morning which increased to a gale by nine a. m. and whipped up a nasty, choppy sea, the most menacing condition possible for a seaplane riding on the surface of the ocean.

Messages received from Rear-Admiral Jackson late to-night telling of damage to the NC-1 caused by the heavy seas running at the time the plane was found, served to increase the apprehension felt for the safety of the crew of the NC-3. The lower planes of the NC-3 were badly damaged, one pontoon was entirely carried away, the right wing was badly broken, the left

NEW FINANCIAL SYSTEM

All State Bills to Be Paid Twice a Month—Auditor to O. K. Treasurer's Payments

Montpelier, May 19.—The following statement was made Saturday relative to the accomplishments of the committee of the Board of Control upon a new system in some of the financial offices of the State and the committee of which W. F. Scott is chairman has decided to make the following recommendations to the Board of Control for its approval:

That all bills be presented and paid on the 10th and 20th of each month; that the committee on the Board of Control go over all bills over the sum of $500 or $300, and "O. K." them before they are paid. The committee had decided to recommend that a new form of warrant be used and all bills paid by the State treasurer after audited by the auditor.

The first day of every month the pay rolls will be made up for payment of salaries of all officers and their employees and that the pay roll of attendants in institutions like the State hospital will be sent to the State treasurer on the second or fifth of each month and the pay roll be completed and checks drawn for the payment of each one on the pay roll.

The expense accounts will be paid from one to three months according to what seems best, but the expense of employees, not officers will be paid when salaries are paid.

All advances, excepting a very few, have been eliminated up to date. Very likely there will have to be a few advances in expenses like freights, express, postage and the like at institutions.

The committee, which completed its first setting Friday, has decided to investigate the Maine system of accounting, it being nearest to Vermont's conditions and they probably will be recommendations of a change in the book-keeping systems. There will be a recommended checking of revenue and a following up system.

GUILDHALL WOMAN'S BODY FOUND IN RIVER

Identified as Emma England, Victim of Canoe Accident a Month Ago

St. Johnsbury, May 19.—Trainmen on a morning freight to-day discovered the body of a woman, dressed in a blue serge suit, floating in the river near Barnet on the New Hampshire side of the Connecticut. Word was sent back to Melndoes and Undertaker George F. Winch went to the river and found the body near the shore. He notified the selectman of Monroe, N. H., who ordered him to take the body to his undertaking rooms.

From appearances, the woman was thought to be about 35 years old, the body appearing as having been some time in the water. A ring on her finger helped to identify her and at the autopsy held at Melndoes this afternoon she was positively identified as Emma England of Guildhall, who was capsized in a canoe four weeks ago when crossing from Guildhall to Northumberland, N. H. Her father and mother live in Guildhall and the New Hampshire authorities took the body there this afternoon.

U. S. Naturalization Court

Montpelier, May 19.—A session of United States district court occurred here to-day, Judge H. B. Howe of Burlington presiding, when 25 persons, aliens, were naturalized, the most of whom appeared in the morning, only one appearing in the afternoon, in the evening the court was at Barre when applications for second papers were received.

wing ribs were damaged and the elevators were smashed. Naval vessels standing by in an effort to salvage the big boat, reported to the department that the seas were running so high that it was impossible to save it at this time. It was pointed out that only good fortune could possibly have saved the NC-3 from even more serious damage, since it is handicapped by the extra weight of its crew.

Using Corvo Island as an operating base, the screen of battleships and destroyers was sweeping westward in a great semi-circle in an effort to catch sight of the NC-3 or pick up radio distress signals. The high winds and heavy seas prevailing made the work of the rescue party most difficult.

The main element of hope in the situation as viewed by naval officials to-night, was the fact that the weather forecasts predict diminishing winds and abated seas late in the night and Monday morning. It was thought that if Commander Towers' frail craft could successfully ride out the gale until morning that the probability of rescue would be greatly increased since a swarm of destroyers and other naval craft, gathered from wide distances, was being concentrated over the area to the northwest of the Azores. Each of the seaplanes carried sufficient food and water for six days when the squadron left Trepassay bay.

The condition in which the NC-1 was found was described in the following message to the department from the cruiser Columbia:

"NC-1 right wing badly broken, pontoon carried away, elevators broken, fabric left wing ribs badly damaged. Condition of sea too rough to salvage plane. Fairfax standing by awaiting better conditions. Crew of NC-1 in good shape now on board Columbia. Favorable weather before proceeding NC-4 in good condition and awaiting to Ponta Delgada. Scouting lines set to westward for NC-3. Strong northwesterly wind and rough seas prevailing."

The members of the crew of NC-3 in addition to Commander Towers are: Commander H. C. Richardson, Lieutenant D. N. McCullough, Lieutenant Commander R. A. Lavender, and Machinist L. R. Moore.

The American Legion was organized in commemoration of the battle of Xivray, in which all the charter members participated June 16, 1918. Xivray Post, A. is the first to be organized in the State of Vermont.

FIND MANY BONES IN BABY'S BODY BROKEN
An Apparent Case of Horrible Cruelty Unearthed in Rutland

Rutland, May 18.—Because of the indignation of physicians and hospital attendants when a child arrived at the Rutland hospital, Mrs. John Peyer of this city has been summoned to appear in city court Monday morning to show cause why a two-year-old baby should not be taken from her by the State protection department and given a home. The case is said to be the worst instance of apparent cruelty to a human being which has ever come to the attention of the local authorities.

A neighbor is said to have discovered the child at the Peyer house lying in a basket without having received a physician's attention. When it was taken to the hospital by the poor master it was discovered to have a fracture of each leg, a broken arm, a fracture of both collar bones and two broken ribs. The mother claims the child received the injuries by falling. Some doctors say this would be impossible and the Grand Juror John S. Dorsey has decided to make an investigation.

CAPT. GIBSON AGAIN "MAYOR OF BRATTLEBORO"
Brattleboro, May 14.—Capt. E. W. Gibson again becomes "mayor of Brattleboro," a position he held before entering the service, by virtue of his election as chairman of the board of commissioners. He was recently elected a commissioner by the unanimous vote of the voters of the village. He also assumes control of the streets and the police department, while Commissioner John T. Kaine takes charge of sewers and Commissioner A. L. Roberts the fire department.

TWO STORE BREAKS AT ST. ALBANS REPORTED
St. Albans, May 18.—The store of William Doolin & Co. was broken into last night, but so far no loss of goods have been discovered. Entrance was made through a window at the rear of the basement. The break is being investigated by the police authorities. The night before Mrs. E. Walker, proprietor of the City Fruit store, claimed that her store was entered some time after 11 o'clock and $500 taken from the cash register. The police are not working on this case as she reported her loss to the administrator of her husband's estate, John Kearney, stating that the reason she had not notified the police was because she had no faith in them. It is understood that Mrs. Walker contradicted herself this morning when she told several people that she has the police working on the case, which is not the fact.

DEPRESSED BRATTLEBORO MAN SHOOT HIMSELF
Arthur J. Blanning, 36, Thus Climaxes a Period of Ill Health

Brattleboro, May 18.—Because of ill health and domestic troubles, Arthur J. Blanning, aged 36, committed suicide this morning in his home on Maple street, placing the muzzle of a rifle under his chin and discharging the rifle by operating with his foot a bent wire attached to the trigger. The bullet went through his head, tearing off a section of the upper part. Blanning had influenza last week and suffered a nervous breakdown.

DIES AT THE AGE OF 103
Mrs. Marianne Gibson Dies at Hyde Park—Believed Oldest Person in Vermont

Hyde Park, May 19.—Mrs. Marianne Gibson, believed to be the oldest person in the State, is dead at the age of 103 years. She was about as usual on Saturday during the day and retired without assistance that evening. There was no later, she complained of a pain in the head and passed away at 10 o'clock.

Mrs. Gibson celebrated her 103rd birthday on Tuesday, April 22. Considering her great age, she had been remarkably well. She was born in Kilsven, Ireland, April 22, 1816, and had lived in this country about 40 years, the last 13 in this place. She has several children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. On her birthday she received many callers and several gifts.

In order that relatives from a distance may get here the funeral will not take place until Friday afternoon at two o'clock. Burial will be here.

U. S. COURT OPENS MAY TERM AT WINDSOR
$50,000 Suit of Mrs. Platt vs. B. & M. Is Case of Principal Interest

Windsor, May 20.—The May term of United States Court opened here today with Judge Harland B. Howe of Burlington presiding. Practically the entire day was given over to naturalization proceedings. The big case of the term is that of Mrs. Frederick S. Platt vs. the Boston & Maine railroad, who seeks to recover $50,000 for the death of her husband, late clerk of the federal court, who was killed some time ago in a wreck on the road near here. There have been vague rumors that negotiations looking to a settlement were in progress but those who are in a position to know say that the case will undoubtedly come to trial.

There is a market to be found, through advertising in the Standard, for good used furniture, household goods, etc.

GUERNSEY CALF SELLS FOR $25,000

Price Paid for Two-Month-Old Bull Is Record for Any Animal of Its Breed

Madison, N. J., May 15.—Floram Leader, a two-month-old Guernsey bull calf, was sold at auction here today for $25,000, said to be a new record price for any animal of its breed. Oakes Farms and Hugh Bancroft, both of Massachusetts, combined to make the purchase, paying $10,000 above the previous record price.

Floram Leader created interest when he was led into the auction ring. Within two minutes bidding on him had passed the $10,000 mark. He is a son of Ne Plus Ultra, out of Langwater Nancy, a cow that produced 18,785 pounds of milk containing 1,011.66 pounds of butter fat in a year, a record that has been exceeded only by three Guernsey cows, it was announced before the sale.

The auction to-day, which was at Oakes Farms, resulted in the transfer of 32 Guernseys, including show champions and the highest producing blood lines of the breed, it was said, for a total of $150,275, an average of approximately $2,172 a head.

Among the most active bidders on Oakes Farms were Clarence H. Mackay of Roslyn, N. Y., and C. L. A. Whitney of Albany.

PLAYED WITH MATCHES

Laura Butler, Three Years Old, Saved by Her Mother

St. Albans, May 18.—Laura Butler, the three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Butler of Bishop street, narrowly escaped being burned to death Saturday night as a result of playing with matches. The child was burned severely on the right leg from the ankle to the body. Her condition to-day is favorable.

A few minutes after Mrs. Butler had put her child to bed she heard her screaming and running upstairs to her room where she found the child's head ablaze. As soon as she extinguished the blaze Dr. H. H. Johnson was summoned and dressed the burns. The little girl told her mother that she found a match on the floor.

XIVRAY POST

First American Legion Organization in Vermont Established at St. Albans

St. Albans, May 18.—The first meeting of the charter members of Xivray Post, American Legion, was held this evening in the city hall, with nearly all the members present. The following officers were elected: Commander, Capt. J. A. Evans; vice-commander, Sergeant Harry Walsh; adjutant, Sergeant Arthur P. Jones; assistant adjutant, Simon Godfrey; quartermaster, Corporal John Bushey; membership committee, Sergeant Ernest W. Severance; Elmer Brackett, Ernest Eugene Taylor, Cecil Neiberg, Corporal Charles Shannon.

The American Legion was organized in commemoration of the battle of Xivray, in which all the charter members participated June 16, 1918. Xivray Post, A. is the first to be organized in the State of Vermont.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS
Montpelier, May 15.—The annual outing of the Washington County Spanish American War Veterans occurred to-day at Caledonia Park with 60 members attending. Major F. W. Russell of Plymouth, formerly of the 1st New Hampshire regiment and a regular army officer, was a guest of honor. A baseball game was enjoyed in the afternoon when Jackson's team defeated Pattee's team. This will hold the silver cup for a year at least.

The new officers are: President, Dr. Joseph Jackson, Barry, vice-president, Thomas Mercer, Barre; F. H. Prouty, C. B. Boyce, Montpelier; treasurer, E. H. Prouty, Montpelier.

You are going to buy a home—some time or soon. Are you not somewhat curious to read about homes that are in the market?

Two years ago he obtained a divorce from his wife, who was Miss Kate Spencer of Jamaica. He lived with his widowed mother and was a cement block manufacturer. This morning he arose about two o'clock and went to the top of a hill near his home where he stood about an hour, his mother watching him. Then he returned to his room and about breakfast time he went to the cellar and shot himself, his mother going there on hearing the shot. He was a member of the Baptist Church and the Red Men. He leaves a daughter 10 years old and three brothers.

ALIENATION CASE IS SETTLED OUT OF COURT

Brattleboro, May 18.—After a jury had been drawn, terms of settlement were agreed upon to-day in the alienation of affections case of Arthur H. Wilson against Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lang in Windsor county and a consent block manufacturer. This morning he arose about two o'clock and went to the top of a hill near his home where he stood about an hour, his mother watching him. Then he returned to his room and about breakfast time he went to the cellar and shot himself, his mother going there on hearing the shot. He was a member of the Baptist Church and the Red Men. He leaves a daughter 10 years old and three brothers.

SEARLES RESIGNS AS STATE CHAIRMAN

Has Been Head of Republican State Committee For Three Years

St. Johnsbury, May 19.—Attorney J. Rolfe Searles has resigned his position as chairman of the Republican State Committee, which office he has held for three years. He has been a member of this committee eight years and previous to his election as chairman he held the positions as vice-chairman and secretary. Stress of other business caused him to resign. He recommended Harry H. Carr of this town as his successor as a member of the committee from Caledonia county.

Mrs. Preston S. Chamberlin Dies

Bennington, May 18.—The death of Mrs. Hannah Chamberlin occurred at Bennington May 18 at the age of 84. Her lifelong home was in Bradford until the death of her husband, Capt. Preston S. Chamberlin in 1916, since which time she has made her home with a daughter, Mrs. George R. Grant, in Bennington. Besides this daughter were Mrs. Annie C. Spaulding, who died in 1917, and Edith Chamberlin of Vergennes. Notwithstanding Mrs. Chamberlin's shut-in life for the past several years from a serious lameness and her advanced age, she kept close in touch with world affairs through her great interest in reading with a large circle of friends of several generations through her delightful letters.

Captain and Mrs. Chamberlin celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary in January, 1918, after an unusually happy and ideal married life, and their home was a symbol of hospitality and friendliness, where young and old were always welcome.

GOV. HARRISON TAKES YOUNG WIFE
Philippine Islands' Executive, 45, Marries Elizabeth Wrentham, Girl of 18

Chicago, May 15.—Francis Burton Harrison, 45 years old, governor-general of the Philippine Islands and Miss Elizabeth Wrentham, 18 years old, a student of the University of California at Berkeley, Cal., were married at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon at the Blackstone Hotel.

The marriage was the climax of an attachment said to have begun a year ago when the governor-general met the present Mrs. Harrison at a dance at the palace in Manila.

The proposed marriage met obstacles, however, and one of them caused the ceremony to be performed here instead of at the home of the governor-general's mother, Mrs. Constance Cary Harrison, author in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Wrentham in New York several months ago said she would not give her consent to her daughter's marriage. Mr. Harrison's age she said was the only bar.

Another obstacle, a more recent one, was a diphtheria quarantine at the Wrentham home in Berkeley. Miss Wrentham was said by the Berkeley authorities to have been discharged from the quarantine when she left a short time ago.

There was a third obstacle. Mrs. Mabel Judson Harrison, the governor-general's second wife, to-day in San Diego, Cal., obtained her final decree of divorce. With that bar surmounted final details for the ceremony were arranged at once. Mr. Harrison's first wife was Mary Crocker of San Francisco, who died in 1905.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison are expected to start to-morrow for Washington to visit his mother. They will probably spend a few days in New York also. Then they will motor through New England as their honeymoon trip.

The governor-general and Mrs. Harrison plan to sail on June 12 for Manila.

GO OUT WITH THEIR LIVES
Oil Stove Exploded and Home of Austin Chase at Cambridge Is Destroyed

Cambridge, May 18.—The home owned by H. N. Gray and occupied by Austin Chase was destroyed by fire this evening at six o'clock, the cause being the explosion of an oil stove. The family barely had time to get out with their lives, nothing being saved. The loss is $2,000, covered by insurance, with a small insurance on the furniture.

"TRUSTY" ESCAPES FROM HOUSE OF CORRECTION
Edward Carrigan, Model Prisoner, Feels the Urge of Spring

Rutland, May 18.—Notwithstanding the fact that he had expressed appreciation of the liberties given and had promised faithfully to take advantage of the opportunity to work and make good, the call of spring proved to much of a temptation to Edward Carrigan, age 34 years, a trusty prisoner at the House of Correction, and he escaped last evening. Carrigan had since July 13, 1915, when he was committed to the institution, given every indication of being a model prisoner and, after a long talk with Capt. M. R. Loukes, he had been assigned to help Deputy Sheriff John F. Smith at the greenhouse which is slightly removed from the main buildings. This gave him opportunity to be alone at times and on Friday evening, when it was still daylight, he took French leave. Officers in all directions have been notified but up to this evening no trace of the man has been secured.

Carrigan was committed from Bennington for burglary. He had a sentence of not less than two nor more than three years. His short term would have expired April 2, 1919, but he had been informed that for good work as a trusty he would be given extra consideration. Charles Readboro, who was committed with Carrigan, was pardoned last January but Carrigan never showed any repentance on this account.

Carrigan is five feet 10 inches tall and weighs 147 pounds. He is of dark complexion and has brown hair and hazel eyes.

GIVES $500 TOWARD THE GREELEY MEMORIAL
Donation by Mrs. George A. Joslyn in Memory of Late Husband

Rutland, May 18.—Mrs. George A. Joslyn of Omaha, Neb., has sent the Greeley memorial committee a check for $500 toward paying for the house in East Poultney where the great journalist learned the printer's trade. The gift is in memory of her husband who was born in Watfield, Vt., and died last year in Omaha. Mr. Joslyn was head of the Western Newspaper Union whose stereotypical plates are used by most of the country papers in the United States.

FORMER C. V. MAN
St. Albans, May 18.—News has been received of the death of Charles E. Dewey, of Montreal, which occurred Thursday at Atlantic City, N. J., where he had gone with Mrs. Dewey for a few days' rest. The funeral will be held at No. 9 Aberdeen street, Toronto, Ont., Monday afternoon.

Besides his wife he is survived by two daughters, Dorothy and Kathleen and three brothers, Sidney Dewey, who is general eastern freight agent of the Grand Trunk railroad with offices at New York, E. E. Dewey of the Robert Redford company, Toronto and E. Dewey of the Western Assurance company of Calgary, Alberta.

Mr. Dewey, who was 45 years old, began his railroad career as clerk and senior-railroad in the division freight agent's office of the Grand Trunk railroad at Toronto. His first official position was that of district freight agent at Stratford, Ont. From there he was promoted to a similar position at Hamilton, Ont. He was general freight agent of the Central Vermont railway with offices at St. Albans for several years. From here he was transferred to general freight agent of the Grand Trunk Pacific with headquarters at Winnipeg, Man. From there he went to Montreal as freight traffic manager of the Grand Trunk System about five years ago. He held this position at the time of his death.

SHE FINDS HERSELF MUCH BETTER
Lame back, rheumatic pains, stiffness and soreness in muscles and joints can be quickly relieved. Mrs. L. Wavue, 2723 3rd St., Ocean Park, Cal., writes: "I used to have pains in my right hip. I could hardly turn in bed. Now I find I am much better by using Foley Kidney Pills. Likewise, pains in my back left." J. W. O'Sullivan, 30 Church street.

SOCONY TRACTOR OIL

Keep Your Tractor Investment at Par

Only correct lubrication can keep your tractor engine as good as new—free from destructive wear—full-powered for every purpose. It needs an oil that retains its lubricating qualities at the high operating heat of tractor engines.

SoCony Gas Engine Tractor Oil is the oil recommended by leading farm tractor manufacturers.

Keeps pistons, cylinders, valve mechanism and bearings continuously cushioned with a wear-preventing film of pure lubricant. Enables the crankshaft to receive and transmit the power from the flying pistons with the minimum of friction, jar, vibration and strain. Maintains full compression and gets from the fuel every usable ounce of power. Means small bills for repairs.
